This supplement dated March 19, 2026 to the Amended and Restated Confidential Offering Memorandum dated December 1, 2024, as amended by a supplement dated October 17, 2025 (collectively, the "Offering Memorandum") constitutes an offering of securities only in those jurisdictions and to those persons where and to whom they may be lawfully offered for sale. The Offering Memorandum is not, and under no circumstances is to be construed as, a prospectus or advertisement or a public offering of these securities. No securities commission or similar authority in Canada has reviewed or in any way passed upon this document or the merits of the securities offered hereby, and any representation to the contrary is an offence.

This Offering Memorandum is personal to each prospective purchaser and does not constitute an offer to any other person or to the public generally to subscribe for or otherwise acquire the securities offered hereby. Distribution of this Offering Memorandum to any person other than the prospective purchaser and any person retained to advise such prospective purchaser with respect to its purchase is unauthorized, and any disclosure of any of its contents without the Fund Manager's prior written consent is prohibited. Each prospective purchaser, by accepting delivery of the Offering Memorandum, agrees to the foregoing and to make no photocopies of this Offering Memorandum or any documents referred to in, or incorporated into, the Offering Memorandum.

POLAR LONG/SHORT FUND (CANADA)

SUPPLEMENT TO
AMENDED AND RESTATED CONFIDENTIAL OFFERING MEMORANDUM

The information herein provides certain additional information and supplements the Amended and Restated Confidential Offering Memorandum of Polar Long/Short Fund (Canada) (the "Fund"), dated December 1, 2024, as amended by a supplement dated October 17, 2025 (the "Offering Memorandum") and as it may be further amended or supplemented from time to time. The Fund is an open-ended investment trust created under the laws of Ontario pursuant to an amended and restated trust agreement dated as of April 21, 2014 (as the same may be amended, supplemented or amended and restated from time to time, the "Trust Agreement"). The investment objectives and strategies of the Fund are described in the Offering Memorandum. See "Investment Objective of the Fund" and "Investment Strategies of the Fund" in the Offering Memorandum.

The Fund is offering an unlimited number of Class A Units and Class F Units issued in series (collectively, the "Units") under the Offering Memorandum on a continuous basis pursuant to exemptions from the prospectus requirements of applicable securities legislation (the "Offering") including to "accredited investors" (as such term is defined in the Securities Act (Ontario) or National Instrument 45-106 – Prospectus Exemptions, as applicable) resident in, or otherwise subject to, the laws of, any province or territory of Canada (the "Offering Jurisdictions"). Except as otherwise provided herein in connection with fees, the Class A Units and Class F Units have the same attributes and rights. The Fund may also issue additional classes of units from time to time. See "Details of the Offering" in the Offering Memorandum.

All capitalized terms used and not defined herein have the meaning set out in the Offering Memorandum. The information set out in this Supplement modifies the information in the Offering Memorandum and the Offering Memorandum should be read subject to this additional information.

If there is a misrepresentation in the Offering Memorandum, purchasers resident in the Offering Jurisdictions may, in certain circumstances, be provided with a remedy for rescission or damages. See "Purchasers' Rights of Action for Damages and Rescission" in the Offering Memorandum.

The Fund may be considered a "related issuer" (as such term is defined in National Instrument 33-105 – Underwriting Conflicts) of Polar Asset Management Partners Inc. See "Certain Conflicts of Interest – Statement of Related and Connected Issuers" in the Offering Memorandum.

All Units purchased pursuant to the Offering Memorandum are subject to restrictions on resale unless a further statutory exemption is available to the holder of the Units or an appropriate discretionary order is obtained pursuant to applicable securities laws. Therefore, all potential purchasers under this Offering should consult with their legal advisors prior to seeking to sell or otherwise transfer any Units purchased hereunder. As there is no market for the Units, it may be difficult or even impossible for a Unitholder to sell such Units. However, Units may be redeemed in accordance with the provisions of the Offering Memorandum.

Potential purchasers should carefully review the Section entitled "Risk Factors" in the Offering Memorandum prior to making any decision to invest in the Units.

SUPPLEMENT TO THE CONFIDENTIAL OFFERING MEMORANDUM

This supplement (this "Supplement") forms part of, and is to be read in conjunction with, the Amended and Restated Confidential Offering Memorandum dated December 1, 2024 of Polar Long/Short Fund (Canada), as amended by a supplement dated October 17, 2025, as may be further amended or supplemented from time to time. Any statement contained in the Offering Memorandum will be deemed to be modified or superseded for all purposes to the extent, but only to the extent, that a statement contained herein expressly modifies or supersedes such statement. Any statement so modified or superseded shall not be deemed, except as so modified or superseded, to constitute a part of the Offering Memorandum. Any statement contained in the Offering Memorandum and not so modified or superseded shall remain a part of the Offering Memorandum. All capitalized terms used herein and not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings given to them in the Offering Memorandum.

Certain Conflicts of Interest

The text under the heading "Certain Conflicts of Interest" is deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following:

> "The Fund and the Offshore Funds will be subject to a number of actual and potential conflicts of interest involving Polar and its affiliates. However, Polar and its affiliates have substantial incentives to see the assets of the Fund and the Offshore Funds appreciate in value, and merely because an actual or potential conflict of interest exists does not mean that it will be acted upon to the detriment of the Fund or the Offshore Funds.
> Polar and its directors, shareholders, officers and employees will devote as much of their time to the activities of the Fund and the Offshore Funds as they deem necessary and appropriate. Polar and its affiliates are not restricted from forming additional investment funds, from entering into other investment advisory relationships or from engaging in other business activities, even if such activities may be in competition with the Fund or the Offshore Funds and/or may involve substantial time and resources of Polar. For example, officers or employees of Polar may be appointed to the board of directors of a particular issuer in which the Fund or the Offshore Funds has an investment which could result in a conflict of interest for any subsequent transactions of the issuer traded or made on behalf of the Fund or the Offshore Funds. These activities could be viewed as creating a conflict of interest in that the time and effort of the investment team will not be devoted exclusively to the business of the Fund or the Offshore Funds but will be allocated between the business of the Fund, the Offshore Funds and the management of the assets of other advisees of Polar.
>
> Polar and its principals may enter into transactions in the same or different securities or investments to be traded or made on behalf of the Fund or the Offshore Funds for their proprietary accounts. Polar and its affiliates are also actively engaged in transactions on behalf of accounts and other investment funds that may involve the same securities in which the Fund may invest. These other accounts and investment funds may have investment programs and investment objectives similar to or dissimilar from those of the Fund and the Offshore Funds. The transactions and portfolio strategies of Polar and/or its affiliates used for other investment funds or accounts could conflict with the transactions and investment strategies employed by Polar in managing the Fund and the Offshore Funds. Polar may sell or recommend the sale, and may buy or recommend the purchase, of a particular security for certain but not all accounts (including accounts in which Polar or its officers or employees may have an interest) or may take different action with regard to the timing or nature of actions taken with respect to the Fund or the Offshore Funds and, accordingly, transactions in a particular account, including the Fund and the Offshore Funds, may not be consistent with transactions in other accounts. This could adversely affect the prices and availability of the securities and other financial instruments in which the Fund or the Offshore Funds invest or may seek to invest.
> Applicable Securities Laws, including National Instrument 31-103 – Registration Requirements, Exemptions and Ongoing Registrant Obligations, prohibit the Fund and the Offshore Funds from purchasing securities from, or selling securities to, another fund or account managed or advised by Polar or its affiliate (known as "inter-fund trades" or "cross-trades") unless such transaction is made in accordance with the requirements in National Instrument 81-107 – Independent Review Committee for Investment Funds, which includes the requirement for approval by the manager's independent review committee, or an exemptive relief order granted by the Canadian securities regulatory authorities, as applicable. As such, any cross- or inter-fund trades made on behalf of the Fund or the Offshore Funds by Polar will be effected in accordance with applicable law and any fiduciary requirements. Notwithstanding the foregoing, there may be potential conflicts of interest or regulatory issues relating to these types of transaction which could limit Polar's decision to engage in these transactions, as the case may be. Such trades may include "rebalancing trades" used to align the relative weightings of the other accounts or investment funds managed by Polar, which weightings are set by Polar in its sole discretion. Polar will periodically review the relative weightings of such portfolios and may make such rebalancing trades at any time or over a period of time (including daily, weekly, monthly or at other intervals) as determined by Polar in its sole discretion.

Polar's independent review committee (the "IRC") has issued standing instructions in respect of the Fund's and the Offshore Funds' cross- or inter-fund trades and such trades between the Fund or the Offshore Funds and other funds or accounts managed by Polar or its affiliate may be made on behalf of the Fund or the Offshore Funds in reliance on, and in accordance with, such standing instructions and the relevant requirements of applicable securities legislation or any exemptive relief, as applicable. At least annually, the IRC will review a report of all cross- or inter-fund trades executed during the relevant period in reliance on the IRC's standing instructions.

There may be situations of conflict in the actual allocation of opportunities by Polar with the result that other clients of Polar could obtain preferential allocations. If it is determined by the Investment Advisor that it would be appropriate for the Fund or the Offshore Funds and one or more other accounts or investment funds managed by it to participate in an investment opportunity, the Investment Advisor will seek to execute orders for all of the participating accounts and investment funds, on an equitable basis, taking into account such factors as the relative amounts of capital available for investments and the investment programs and portfolio positions of the Fund or the Offshore Funds and the other accounts or funds.

The Fund and the Offshore Funds, or Polar on their behalf, may engage service providers (including law firms, accounting and audit firms and research providers) with whom Polar has other pre-existing business relationships.

The Fund Administrator and the Offshore Funds' administrator may rely in part on Polar to value securities and other instruments held by the Fund and the Offshore Funds for which quotations are not readily available. As Polar's compensation is linked to such valuations, Polar could have a conflict of interest in providing such valuations.

The Fund and the Offshore Funds depend on the Fund Administrator and the Offshore Funds' administrator for administration of certain of their business activities. While such administrators devote as much time and resources as in their judgment is reasonably required, they are involved in other business activities.

Unitholders may elect to invest in Class A Units which are subject to a servicing fee for reporting, administrative, ongoing advice and other services provided by such Unitholders' registered dealer representative or other financial intermediary. The servicing fee payable by the Fund in respect of the Class A Units will be allocated to the Unitholder's registered dealer through which such Unitholder subscribed for the Class A Units. The receipt of the servicing fee by a Unitholder's registered dealer representative will result in a conflict of interest.

Statement of Related and Connected Issuers

Applicable Securities Laws require securities dealers and advisers, when they trade in or advise with respect to their own securities or securities of certain other issuers to which they, or certain other parties related to them, are related or connected or securities of an issuer in which a "responsible person" (as defined by the rules of the Investment Industry Regulatory Organization of Canada) is an officer or director, to do so only in accordance with particular disclosure and other rules. These rules require dealers and advisers, prior to trading with or advising their customers or clients, to inform them of the relevant relationships and connections with the issuer of the securities. Clients and customers should refer to the applicable provisions of these Applicable Securities Laws for the particulars of these rules and their rights or consult with a legal adviser.

The Fund is a related issuer of Polar. Polar will earn management fees and performance fees from the Fund and the Offshore Funds. See "Fees and Expenses of the Fund".

Polar may engage in activities as an Investment Fund Manager, Portfolio Manager, Commodity Trading Manager and Exempt Market Dealer in respect of securities of related and connected issuers or securities of an issuer in which a "responsible person" is an officer or director, but will do so only in compliance with Applicable Securities Laws."
